

Charles G. Barr

Education

- 2005 United States Sports Academy, Daphne, AL
Doctor of Sport Management
- 2001 Lynn University, Boca Raton, FL
Master of Science in Sports Administration
- 1997 York College of Pennsylvania, York, PA
Bachelor of Science in Recreation Administration

Work Experience

- 2004 – Present Lynn University, Boca Raton, Florida
College of Hospitality Management
Sports Management Assistant Professor
- Developed online sport management courses
 - Created new courses for sports management curriculum
 - Taught courses in South Africa, Thailand, Peru, Portugal, Spain, Morocco, Cambodia, Vietnam, China, Australia
 - Collaborated with NCAA, NFL, ESPN, and Razor Gator to deliver experiential learning experiences for sports management students
- 2002- 2004 Ministry of Education, Kingdom of Bahrain
Curriculum/Interscholastic Sports Director
- Constructed a complete interscholastic sporting program for 13 sports K-12th grade
 - Established a new physical education curriculum for all public schools K-12th grade
 - Introduced a new physical fitness testing battery to the entire Kingdom
 - Developed a recreational summer program for all government school students
- 2001-2002 Brauser Maimonides Academy, Ft. Lauderdale Florida
Physical Education Teacher
Kindergarten – 8th grade
- Instructed students in Florida State's physical education curriculum
 - Facilitated special events such as field days and school Olympics
 - Managed school equipment and facilities
- 1999- 2002 Lynn University, Boca Raton, Florida
Women's Basketball Assistant Coach
- Organized all travel plans for the program
 - Created scouting reports and prepared our players for upcoming competition
 - Recruited players from eight different countries and 22 different states