About Lynn

Lynn University is one of the most innovative, international and individualized small universities in America. We are a young and forward-thinking organization located alongside South Florida's booming business centers and beautiful beaches, and we are focused on one thing: preparing students for success.

Our professors concentrate on the art of teaching—making good students great and great students remarkable.

Our award-winning, tablet-based learning initiative puts a transformational learning companion into the hands of students.

And our graduates? They've gained the intellectual flexibility and global experience to take the lead in an ever-changing world.

Take the challenge

Earn your degree on campus during the day or online in the evening. Advance your knowledge or begin a new career.

Either way, you'll be able to accomplish your goals with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Lynn.

Gain a solid understanding of the causes of crime and the application of justice from nationally recognized experts, and learn to take a holistic approach to crime and criminal behavior.

Cross discipline courses like psychology and political studies are explored to understand how they influence the field of criminal justice.

Full-time students can participate in internships in Washington, D.C., for a semester.

Criminal justice majors may go on to law school or work in a variety of positions, both in the public eye and behind the scenes:

- correctional officer
- private security
- juvenile justice/delinquency prevention
- victim advocate/services

Some of the places our students and alumni have worked or interned include:

- Boca Raton Police Department
- Delray Beach Police Department
- South Bay Correctional Facility
- Miami-Dade Police Department
- U.S. Marshall's Office
- Charlotte County Sheriff's Office
