

We're different here at Lynn. We recognize that the world is becoming more and more connected and we have a strong commitment to innovative learning. So, our program is a balanced and integrated approach of courses that focus on American political processes and those that focus on global political dynamics.

About Lynn

Lynn University is one of the most innovative, international and individualized small universities in America. We are a young and forward-thinking organization located alongside South Florida's booming business centers and beautiful beaches, and we are focused on one thing: preparing students for success.

Our professors concentrate on the art of teaching—making good students great and great students remarkable.

Our award-winning, tablet-based learning initiative puts a transformational learning companion into the hands of students.

And our graduates? They've gained the intellectual flexibility and global experience to take the lead in an ever-changing world.

561-237-7900 | 1-800-888-5966

lynn.edu/artsprograms

Distinguished School

Recognized by Apple as a distinguished school for innovation, leadership, and educational excellence.

Lynn University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, gender, religion, nationality, ethnic origin, disability and/or age in administration of its educational and admission policies, scholarship and loan programs, athletic and/or other school-administered programs.

Lynn University is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award baccalaureate, masters and doctorate degrees. Contact the Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097 or call 404-679-4500 for questions about the accreditation of Lynn University.

©2014 Lynn University 3/14

LYNN
UNIVERSITY

Be a force for change

Impact your local community, your country and the world through civic engagement.

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

Political Science (B.A.)

Where worlds intersect

Get ready to advance your understanding of political processes, structures and functions at the local, national, regional and global levels.

As a political science major at Lynn, you'll study on a campus where students represent more than 90 countries, so political science can more easily be understood as a function of the cultural, political and social diversity of the world.

Through small class discussions, engaging fieldwork and Model United Nations simulations, you'll benefit from interdisciplinary and interactive learning.

You'll study alongside an accomplished faculty with connections to local, state, national and international leaders who can provide exciting internship opportunities.

Our longstanding collaboration with the Washington Internship Institute in Washington, D.C., is just one example. It can provide you with a full semester's internship and integrated coursework in the U.S. capital.

Be influential

As a political science major, you'll have ample career opportunities. Here's a brief sampling:

- domestic and international public service
- education
- law
- diplomatic service
- political office
- private humanitarian organizations
- international governmental organizations

Learn more

Marchéta Wright, professor of international relations, looks forward to hearing from you. If you have any questions about the political science major, please call or email her at 561-237-7833 or mwright@lynn.edu. (Ask her about her extensive work in human rights.)

Or reach out to our Office of Admission at:

admission@lynn.edu

561-237-7900

lynn.edu/admission

We are focused on one thing:
Preparing students for success.

Visit lynn.edu/artsprograms

