About Lynn

Lynn University is one of the most innovative, international and individualized small universities in America. We are a young and forward-thinking organization located alongside South Florida's booming business centers and beautiful beaches, and we are focused on one thing: preparing students for success.

Our professors concentrate on the art of teaching—making good students great and great students remarkable.

And our graduates? They've gained the intellectual flexibility and global experience to take the lead in an ever-changing world.

Think and perform like a leader

Do you want to prepare for top-level educational leadership opportunities without interrupting your career? Look no further than our innovative doctoral program.

Created in conjunction with the Carnegie Project on the Education Doctorate (CPED), our program is designed for working professionals like you.

You can attend class on Saturdays and earn your doctorate in three years. You'll delve into research, discussion and fieldwork with a small cohort of scholar-practitioners (typically 12) who will become lifelong colleagues. Together, you'll gain critical skills to:

- connect research with practice
- lead high-performing organizations
- contribute to students' learning

Best of all, you'll learn from a distinguished faculty with extensive experience as educational leaders and consultants.

Educated to innovate

You'll graduate from our program prepared for a variety of educational environments and ready to address the challenges facing today's schools. Your doctorate can lead to fulfilling careers like these:

- professor
- dean/director
- school principal/president
- school board chairs/superintendent

Lynn graduates are leaders

Our college's alumni have established impressive careers at many institutions, among them:

- American Heritage School of Boca Delray
