

Welcome to prime time.
A career in film and television is a career in storytelling...and we have everything you need to tell the most incredible story imaginable.

About Lynn

Lynn University is one of the most innovative, international and individualized small universities in America. We are a young and forward-thinking organization located alongside South Florida's booming business centers and beautiful beaches, and we are focused on one thing: preparing students for success.

Our professors concentrate on the art of teaching—making good students great and great students remarkable.

Our award-winning, tablet-based learning initiative puts a transformational learning companion into the hands of students.

And our graduates? They've gained the intellectual flexibility and global experience to take the lead in an ever-changing world.

Roll camera!

At Lynn, you'll have access to state-of-the-art technology in all aspects of filmmaking and television...from pre-production to production, and right on through to post-production, too.

Our film and television degree program emphasizes the creative, technical and theoretical study of the industry with courses in performance, production and editing. You'll learn all aspects of film and television, including writing, casting and sound recording. You'll shoot in high definition and with 3-D cameras, then use advanced editing software and motion graphics to make your films come alive.

All along, you'll work in an environment that duplicates significant aspects of film and television industries. Even your professors will be straight from the field, teaching from personal experience with networks including ABC, Fox, Lifetime, the Oxygen Network and WFAN sports radio.
