COLLEGE OF INTERNATIONAL COMMUNICATIONMultimedia Design (B.S.)

Stretch your creativity

Still and motion photography, graphic design for print or web, illustration, digital animation—they're all here to explore in our program blending art and technology.

Start by working with the latest design tools, including state-of-the-art software and 3D printers. And learn from the best. Our faculty have made names for themselves in computer graphics, photography, graphic design, illustration and the fine arts. Not only that, they're passionate about teaching.

Watch your creativity blossom as you create eye-catching projects and build a professional-quality portfolio. Then, showcase it all in a campus exhibition attended by potential employers.
