

Plan an event they won't forget

Earn your event production management degree and learn how to put on an exceptional show. Did you know that event planning is more than just throwing a great party? When you enroll in the event management program at Lynn, you'll discover how to manage, operate and control an event, and you'll become familiar with the contracts and legalities that they entail.

Here, all of your professors will be experts in their fields, so class discussions will feature entertaining and educational stories from their experiences. Students studying event management are exposed to an internship, so you can gain personal experience and network at the same time.
