

Be a leader and create change

An MBA in leadership and management equips you with a deepened understanding of how businesses work. This leadership program focuses on leadership capabilities, ethical decision-making, managing organizational change, and more. You'll learn to maximize your leadership style, articulate your vision, improve effectiveness and teamwork, and inspire employees to drive organizational change. Have work and family obligations? Take classes on campus, or with our online synchronous degree option. You can choose the classes you take online or on campus.

Whether you're a seasoned global leader or just beginning your career, the leadership and management MBA demonstrates your ability to think critically, grasp leadership fundamentals, and understand how to navigate the soft and hard skills that managers face daily—in small businesses and large.

What you'll learn in the leadership and management program

- Values-based leadership and ethical decision-making
- Aligning the workforce with business objectives, values and ethics
- Cultural, social and philosophical implications on business decisions

“The iPad is one of the main reasons why I chose Lynn, and it has helped me succeed in softball and academics.”
