

Reach for the multimedia stars

Earn your master's in communications with this media studies program and become a leader in the communication and media field. As a student of the media studies and practice specialization, you'll learn media law and regulation, international media, digital journalism and more. And right away, you'll get hands-on experience in becoming a master practitioner. You'll edit, design and shoot video to produce visual messages like a pro.

You'll learn this from experts who have years of experience in the industry, including:

- A former international radio and TV reporter, producer and presenter
- A video, animation and 3D graphics expert
- A Fulbright scholar specializing in international advertising
- A widely published scholar and past editor of Women's Studies in Communication

What you'll learn in the media studies program

- Advanced video editing, shooting and design
- Media history, law, culture and technology
- Advanced communication theories, social media strategies and industry trends

“I went back to school to work in higher education administration. The level of teaching and mentoring at Lynn University changed my entire career.”
