

Get inspired

Pursue the visual arts and gain comprehensive training in foundational design using traditional and digital techniques. This visual art and design program focuses on visual theory, history and practical application, and how you can develop and express your personal style. Here, you will explore the visual arts and build creative design techniques.

It's perfect for professionals planning a career in design-related industries.

That's not all. Choose from either an illustration or photography track and learn expressive drawing and color theory or fashion photography and cinematography. Complete courses in visual history, and then express your personal style through practical applications. Watch your creativity blossom as you create eye-catching projects and build a professional portfolio.

The Illustration track allows you the opportunity to develop the practical skills for visual expression of ideas. It's a great combination of art and technology. It's also project-based, which means you can build a high-quality portfolio you can use to land your dream job.

- Expressive drawing and illustration
- Comics and sequential art
- Painting techniques and color theory

“I believe in authenticity, and I’m glad people appreciate what I’m so passionate about.”
